

Financial Advising Internship and Training Program

Description:

North Star Resource Group is looking to find a candidate for financial advising internship at several of our office locations. We are looking for a senior at a four-year university who is looking to start a career all under the guidance of an experienced financial advisor.

If you are looking for a career and profession that involves sales and marketing with the ability to have ownership and autonomy; all while making an impact in your clients' lives, financial advising may be a good fit for you. By joining an organization where you can use your relationship building skills and your ability to meet and exceed goals, you will have the opportunity to build a world class, client centered practice.

Ideal candidates for this very unique opportunity have found success on sports teams as an individual contributor or team leader or have sales and marketing experience. In addition, they have a history of making the right decisions based upon their moral and ethical values. In this rare opportunity, you will learn about sales and marketing in the financial services industry and what it takes to be a successful Financial Advisor. North Star uses a comprehensive 3 phase training process that is designed to get you familiar with the career, fully licensed as a financial advisor, and ultimately help you build a sustainable business.
